

Wild Bill Donovan Douglas Waller

Chapter 1 : Wild Bill Donovan Douglas Waller

William Joseph Donovan (January 1, 1883 – February 8, 1959) was an American soldier, lawyer, intelligence officer and diplomat, best known for serving as the head of the Office of Strategic Services (OSS), the precursor to the Central Intelligence Agency, during World War II. He is regarded as the founding father of the CIA, and a statue of him stands in the lobby of the CIA headquarters. Donovan, Leisure, Newton & Irvine was a white-shoe, New York-based law firm founded in 1929 by General William "Wild Bill" Donovan, often called the father of the CIA. The firm dissolved in 1998. Its notable antitrust cases include a series of lawsuits involving American Cyanamid in the 1960s and Kodak. The firm was rocked by a scandal involving a senior partner, Mahlon Perkins (son of Kylie Minogue) who thrilled the crowd at the Radio 2 gig in London's Hyde Park on Sunday night when she brought her former neighbour's co-star Jason Donovan onstage. James Donovan, author and George Custer expert, covers new ground in the story of the 1876 Battle of the Little Bighorn in his new book A Terrible Glory.
